Knowledge Mat- Creating Media Animation

Sticky Knowledge

- ❑ I know that animation is a sequence of drawings or photographs.
- ❑ I know why little changes are needed in each frame of animation.
- ❑ I can predict what an animation will look like.
- ❑ I know how to plan an animation using a storyboard.
- ❑ I know how to review a sequence of frames in order to check and evaluate my work.
- ❑ I know how onion skinning can be used to make small changes between frames.
- ❑ I can explain ways to improve my own or another person's work.

Subject Specific Vocabulary

animation	A series of pictures as a sequence to look like it is moving.
flipbook	A booklet used to create an animation by viewing a series of pictures quickly.
stop-frame animation	A film making technique that makes objects appear to move on their own.
frame	The term for each separate picture used in the animation.
sequence	A set of images that follow each other in a particular order.
image	A visual object that's created or modified by a computer.
photograph	Taken by a camera.
setting	The background of the animation.
character	A picture or drawing used to create a story in the animation.
onion skinning	A term used in animation when creating and editing to see several frames at once.
consistency	Keeping things the same such as characters and backgrounds.
evaluation	A process of making judgements about the effectiveness of something.
media	Additions such as music, text, titles.
transition	The visual effect that happens between each frame.