LKS2 History Knowledge Mat- Stone Age to Iron Age

CYCLE A

Subject Specific Vocabulary
Pre-history	Relating to a period before written records.
Primitive	Being the first or earliest, especially in the age of the world.
Fossil	The remains or impression of a prehistoric plant or animal embedded in rock and preserved in petrified form.
Agriculture	The practice of growing crops or raising animals
Archaeologist	a person who studies human history and prehistory analysis of artefacts and other physical remains.
Fur Pelt	An undressed skin with hair
Neolithic	New Stone Age, final stage of cultural evolution or technological development among prehistoric humans. .
Headdress	An ornamental covering or band for the head

Sticky Knowledge

Know the three ages of human prehistory

Know about early humans and the Palaeolithic period.

Know when and where early agriculture began

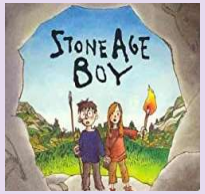

Can explain what life was like for people in the Mesolithic period

Can explain technological advances in the Neolithic period of the Stone Age and investigate Stonehenge.

Understand the life in the Bronze Age, and know how bronze was made and used.

Can investigate the lives of people in the Iron Age and know how life developed from the Bronze Age.

Recommended Reads

Aspirations

Historian
Archaeologist
Teacher
Novelist

Crucial connections

https://www.bbc.co.uk
https://www.bbc.co.uk/wales/celts/

Important facts to know by the end of this History Topic.

The mysteries of the Stonehenge.

How artefacts and resources helps us to find out about important historical facts – Skara Brae.

