LKS2 - PE

Dance - Knowledge Mat

Subject Specific Vocabulary
Stimulus	A starting point/idea/piece of equipment for a dance
Dance phrase	A sequence of movements that has a beginning, middle and end
Genre	A different type/style of dance/ music
Perform	To practise and develop dance skills in order to show an audience
Improvise	To create movement/dance from a given stimulus without planning
Mood/feeling	To use dance to express different emotions using body and facial gestures

At the end of this topic I will be able to:

Perform dances using a range of movement patterns.

Crucial Connections

https://www.youtube.com/watch?v=Q3AwWohFpdo

https://www.youtube.com/watch?v=Nv20Unnr6x4

Sticky Knowledge

I can improvise freely to different genres of music.

I can attempt to translate ideas from a stimulus into movement.

I can understand the term phrase

I can share and create a phrase with a partner or small group.

I can perform at least 2 dance phrases from memory

I can comment on one improvement I could make to a phrase.

I can comment on why I moved in a certain way in response to a stimulus/starting point.

I can use dance to communicate an idea.

Alice Sheppard is a choreographer and dancer from Great Britain who has broken barriers to show dance is accessible for all

Aspirations

Dancer

Choreographer

Related Examples

George Sampson – A male street dancer who won Britains Got Talent 2008 by using the stimulus of the song Singing in the Rain

Riverdance – An Irish dance troupe that dance mainly to traditional Irish music and perform all over the world

