Knowledge Mat- LKS2 PSHE – Celebrating Differences

Subject Specific Vocabulary
Difference	To be very important: to matter most or very much
Impression	An idea, feeling, or opinion about something or someone, especially one formed without conscious thought or on the basis of little evidence.
Appearance	The way that someone or something looks.
Judgement	The ability to make considered decisions or come to sensible conclusions.
Accept	To believe or come to recognize as valid or correct.
Influence	The capacity to have an effect on the character, development, or behaviour of someone or something, or the effect itself.
Opinion	A view or judgement formed about something, not necessarily based on fact or knowledge.
Character	The mental and moral qualities distinctive to an individual
Attitude	A settled way of thinking or feeling about something.
Resolve	To settle or find a solution to a problem

Important facts to know by the end of the PSHE topic:

- Able to accept people for who they are

-Able to question my own beliefs and why I think the way I do.

-Able to understand what it might feel like to be a witness and to target bullying

-Able to explain why it is good to accept people for who they are

Sticky Knowledge

- ❑ I understand that is important to accept everyone is different
- ❑ I know what influences me to make assumptions based on how people look
- ❑ I understand bullying can be hard to spat and I know what to do if I believe someone is being bullied
- ❑ I know how to problem solve with others if and when someone is being bullied
- ❑ I know what is special and I value the ways in which I am unique
- ❑ I can explain why it is good to accept people for the way they are
- ❑ I know how to give and receive compliments.
- ❑ I can talk about when my first expression has changed after getting to know them.