LKS2 RE Knowledge Mat- Do Sikhs think it is important to share? CYCLE A

Subject Specific Vocabulary
Langar	The shared meal that is offered to everyone (free of charge) after each service of worship at the Gurdwara.
service	A ceremony of religious worship.
sharing	To have a portion of something with another or others.
Gurdwara	A place of worship for Sikhs.
holy	Dedicated to God or a religious purpose.
Baisakhi	A festival which celebrates the founding of the Sikh community.
respect	A feeling of deep admiration for someone or something as a result of their abilities, qualities or achievements.
community	A group of people living in the same place or having a particular characteristic in common.

Sticky Knowledge

Understand the importance of sharing and how this links to feelings.

Know what happens at the Baisakhi Festival and why.

Recognise other Sikh sharing festivals and celebrations such as Divali.

Know the 3 rules to live by in the Holy Book (The Guru Granth Sahib) and why they are followed by Sikhs.

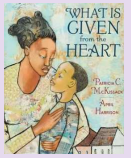

Know why sharing is important to Sikhs and how this is significant to God and the Holy Book.

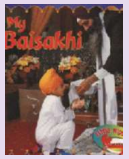

Can describe the Langar.

The Three Rules of Sikhism:

- To remember God
- To earn one's living by honest means and hard work
- To share with others who are less fortunate

Recommended Reads

Crucial connections

www.sikhnet.com/stories
www.bbc.co.uk/learningzone/clips/baisakhi-in-the-gurdwara/673.html
www.bbc.co.uk/learningzone/clips/sikh-food/490.html
www.bbc.co.uk/religion/religions/sikhism/holydays/diwali.shtml

Important facts to know by the end of this RE Unit:

- We use sharing in our everyday lives.
- Sikh's have three rules to follow and live by to please and respect God.
- By sharing the Langar, everyone is seen as equal and important.
- Sharing gives a sense of belonging.