Knowledge Mat- LKS2 RE 'What Kind of World Did Jesus Want?'

Subject Specific Vocabulary
Gospel	Good News
Neighbour	A person who lives next door
Leper	A person suffering from leprosy
Leprosy	A person who is rejected by others
Disciples	A personal follower of Christ
Clergy	People who are ordained for religious duties, in the Christian
Charity	An organisation set up to provide help and raise money for those in need
Samaritan	A member of people inhabiting Samaria in biblical times/
Untouchable	A person who is not allowed to be touched/ a member of a low caste
Humility	Having a low view or modest opinion of one's importance
Fascade	A deceptive outward appearance
Parable	A simple story to illustrate a moral, as told
Action	A thing done, an act

Bible Reference

Matthew (4: 18-22) – Jesus calling his first disciples

Mark (1: 40-44) – The Story of the healing of the leper

Luke (10: 25-37) - The Good Samaritan

Important facts to know by the end of the RE Topic:

'Fishers of men' is a phrase used in the gospels to describe the order given by Jesus to his first disciples.

THE STORY- Many religions believe in supporting others and offering forgiveness and kindness. Jesus through his actions, miracles and teaching showed people the Earth that God wanted. He modelled God's spirit on Earth

THE PRACTICE - THE PRACTICE – Jesus spread his ministry through his teachings and trusted disciples. He was a fisher of men and gathered around him 12 special individuals to help him spread the 'Good News'.

Sticky Knowledge

- ❑ I can understand that text comes from Gospel which tells the story of the life and teaching of Jesus.
- ❑ I know what the term disciple means.
- ❑ I can make clear links between the calling of the first disciples and how Christians today try to follow Jesus and be 'fishers of people.'
- ❑ I can explore stories such as the healing of the Leper to understand how Jesus wanted his followers to behave and know the kind of world Jesus wanted.
- ❑ I know churches today work towards the world Jesus wanted?
- ❑ I know how Christians today work towards the world Jesus wanted.
- ❑ I can make links on how Christians show love and commitment to follow Jesus teachings in different ways.